

DIGITAL ART GLOSSARY

Digital art can be defined by:

Digital artist: an artist that is making art and with digital technology/ material.

3D virtual reality: is a new form of art, a new reality created by artists/ programmers hence, it's a new technology which shows people different facets of a piece.

Paint program: a program on computers or tablets that is used by artists to create illustrations/ paintings.

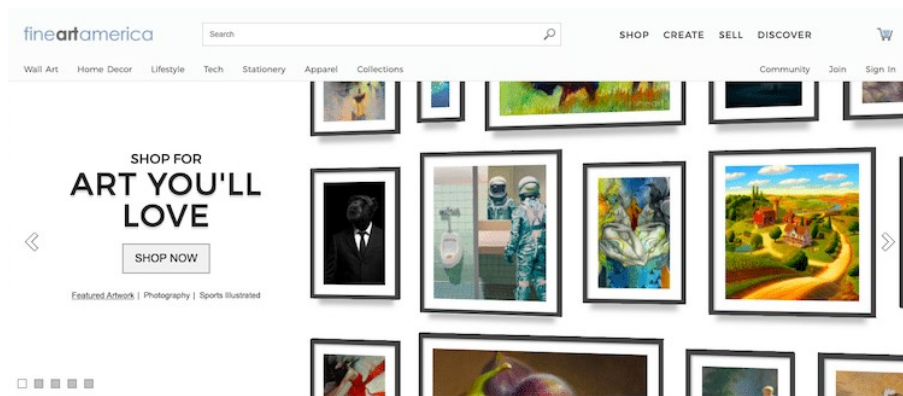

For example:

Tablet: a device that can be used by artists to create art on.

Online market: it's a new way to sell art by internet which is a platform where everyone can have an access and buy things.

Imane Ibrahim, Emma Guelle and Suzanne Jean 1^{ère} AMC